RECEIVED BY EMPEROR

FOREIGN MINISTERS GIVEN AN AUDIENCE BY THE CHI-NESE COURT.

THEIR GOAL IS ATTAINED

Are Received as Representatives of Sovereigns Equal in Rank With the Ruler of the Celestial Empire.
Throughout the Entire Meeting His Majesty Remains Both Stolid and Impassive.

Peking, Jan. 24.—The ministers of the foreign powers here have attained the goal which has been their aim since intercourse between China and the powers began. They have been received as representatives of sovereigns equal in rank to the Chinese emperor. The audiences between the emperor and the ministers were held in the innermost hall of the For-bidden City. The emperor sat upon a dais behind a table. There were four princes at the back of his chair and a dozen officials at each side. The dowager empress was concealed by a screen, according to the stories of the attendants, and remained invisible.

The audience chamber was furnished ornately, in contrast to the dingy rooms which served for these audiences under the old regime. The secretaries translated the addresses of the ministers, copies of which were handed to the emperor. The replies were delivered by Prince Ching. The emperor was silent throughout the audiences and remained stolid and impassive.

Formerly the emperor replied to the ministers in Manchu and the prince interpreted what he said. Now he appeared as an automaton and the secretaries of the foreign ministers who were present said that he looked weaker, less intellectual and more childish than prior to the siege of the legations.

The ministers of the foreign powers entered the Forbidden City at the main gate, leaving their military escorts outside. At the second gate they entered yellow chairs, like those furnished for the princes and their secretaries. They walked through the inner courts of the Forbidden City and their cortege retired from the city by the east gate.

IS AFTER DAMAGES.

Miss Hobhouse Looking for Someone to Sue for False Imprisonment.

London, Jan. 24.—The attempts of Miss Hobhouse to sue Lord Milner, Lord Kitchener or other officers concerned in refusing to allow her to stay in South Africa have failed owing to interference on the part of the authorities. Finally Miss Hobhouse asked Mr. Broderick, the war secretary, whether he would take the responsibility and allow her to sue him.
Mr. Broderick declined this proposition.

Miss Hobhouse was the first woman to agitate regarding the condition of the concentration camps. She went to South Africa again recently, but was not allowed to land there by the British authorities. Her suit was begun by the lady's uncle, Lord Hobhouse, against Lord Kitchener, Lord Milner and others on the charge of false imprisonment.

IS AGAINST REVISION

SPEAKER HENDERSON GOES ON RECORD AS OPPOSED TO TAR-IFF REDUCTION.

WOULD INJURE BUSINESS

Says Jobbers Would Suspend Purchases While Waiting for Lower Prices and Manufacturers Would Be Compelled to Reduce Payrolls—Prefers at This Time to Cut Down Internal Revenue Taxes.

Waterloo, Ia., Jan. 24.—In a letter received here Speaker Henderson puts himself on record as against any revision of the tariff by the present congress. The letter is a response to a petition signed by 70 Republican business men of Waterloo and Cedar Falls.
Speaker Henderson admits that some changes might wisely be made in the present tariff, but sees so much danger in opening up the subject for revision that he would leave it as it is.
He says:

"My judgment is that it is more important at this time in the interest of this country to reduce taxation upon ourselves and stop to a proper degree the influx of the people's money into the public treasury. With the country in an unparalleled prosperous condition I cannot believe it wise to begin a reduction which inevitably will open up the whole field of revision and thus put a serious check upon the business of the country. The moment the country understands there is to be a revision of the tariff jobbers will suspend large purchases, hoping to buy at lower prices. This will compel the manufacturer to reduce his business and this will compel a reduction of the payrolls and serious business calamity might ensue."

ITS WORK FINISHED.

Industrial Commission's Report Will Soon Be Handed to Congress.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The industrial commission has completed and sent to the printer its final report. It is expected that congress will be presented to congress as required by law within the next few days. In it the various questions which have been considered in the course of the inquiry are discussed under separate headings and recommendations are made. On the subject of trusts the commission follows closely the lines of recommendations laid down by the president in his annual message. Supervision by the national government is recommended. The most radical specific step suggested in that direction by the report is that the books of all corporations should be subject at all times to inspection as are the books of a national bank. This, it is claimed, would go far toward protecting the public against impositions in the way of over-capitalization and other devices.

The commission discusses government ownership of railroads and telegraph lines, but does not recommend such a departure from present methods.

There are some recommendations concerning taxation that will attract attention. One of these looks to the imposition of certain taxes on private property by the states direct.

WANTS A HOMESTEAD LAW.

Secretary Root Thinks Filipinos Should Become Land Owners.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Secretary Root appeared before the house insular affairs committee to urge the enactment of a homestead law for the Philippine islands. He said there should be legislation to enable the Filipino to acquire title to property and that denial of that right was in his opinion the cause of much of the present disturbed conditions. He cited the anti-riots in New York and the riots in Ireland as evidence of what followed such denial. He thought a homestead law should be passed to permit the natives to make entry of 100 acres of land as the maximum, the local government to fix the minimum. He also urged the repeal of the Spooner amendment prohibiting the cutting of timber and the granting of franchises. He said that industry in the islands should be promoted, not prevented. The islands needed railroads to develop their abundant resources of timber, coal and other minerals.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS.

House Decides to Raise Their Pay
From $500 to $600 Per Year.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The consideration of the urgent deficiency bill, which has been under debate in the house since Monday, was completed, but owing to the lateness of the hour the passage of the bill went over for the day.

A successful effort was made to increase the pay of rural mail carriers from $500 to $600 per annum. Mr.
Hill (Conn.) made the motion to increase the appropriation for this purpose. It was resisted by Mr. Cannon and Mr. Loud, chairman of the postoffice committee, on the ground that the method was irregular, but the members with rural constituencies supported it and it was adopted, 109 to 78.

CUBANS ASK RECIPROCITY.

Citizens of Havana Present Resolutions to Governor General Wood.

Havana, Jan. 24.—A large meeting in the interest of reciprocity was held in the Tacon theater, at which Senors Montoro, Zayas and Dolz were the speakers. After the meeting a procession was formed which marched to the palace of the governor general.
Here a commission waited upon Governor General Wood and presented resolutions to the effect that the people of Cuba of all classes, Cuban economic societies, political parties and municipalities, believed that the rule and desolation now threatening the island rendered useless the efforts of the United States and Cuba to establish a stable government and reconstruct the country. These resolutions also suggested that the Cuban commission now in Washington be recognized as representative of the entire island, and said that it was a duty which the United States owed Cuba to establish relations of reciprocity with that island.

The American club, which participated in this manifestation, sent cabriquets to President Roosevelt, the speaker of the house and the president of the Merchants' union of New York, urging the establishment of reciprocity.

IS NOW IN BULGARIA.

Miss Stone's Release Expected Within
a Few Days.

London, Jan. 24.—The artist correspondent of The Graphic, who has been following the case of Miss Stone, the captive American missionary, telegraphs from Djoumaibala, Salonica, that the captives are now in Bulgaria, eight hours' distant from the frontier.
The correspondent says that M. Gargiulo, the dragoman of the American legation at Constantinople, who is negotiating for Miss Stone's release, is convinced that, owing to the strictness of the Turkish cordon, nobody can clandestinely cross the frontier.
He has therefore begged the American legation at Constantinople to ask the porte to instruct Ibrahim Pasha to relax his vigilance so as to induce the brigands to bring the captives over the frontier.

The correspondent concludes with saying it is probable that Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka will be free within a few days.

CAN EARN BIG REVENUES.

The Chicago Sanitary District Is Very Valuable.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—By a proposition to the trustees of the sanitary district of Chicago by the McCormick Harvester Machine company the vast revenue producing possibilities of the dockage along the Chicago slip and drainage canal have been practically illustrated.

The McCormick proposition is to lease a tract of 20 acres on the north bank of the canal east of Western avenue for a term of not exceeding 50 years, on a basis of 4 per cent annual rental on the value of the grounds. The purpose of the concern submitting the proposal is ultimately to transfer its dockage from the river to the canal if its overtures are accepted by the trustees.

The sanitary district owns a strip 300 feet wide on both sides of the canal, or land 600 feet wide and 40 miles long.

FORMALLY INVITED.

Mass Meeting of Milwaukee Citizens Asks Henry to Visit the City.

Milwaukee, Jan. 24.—At a mass meeting of citizens here a formal invitation to visit Milwaukee was prepared and transmitted to Prince Henry of Prussia through the German ambassador at Washington. Fifty-five German societies and nearly every club in the city were represented. The invitation is most felicitous, concluding with the following paragraph:

"The people of our municipality, moved by a desire that inspires every heart, take sincere pleasure in extending to you an earnest invitation to become their guest at such time as shall suit your pleasure, and cordially tender to your royal highness the richest favours of their hospitality."

The arrangement for the entertainment of the royal visitor will be venued with a committee of 15.

Americans Bear No Grudge.

London, Jan. 24.—The Times in an editorial says that the eagerness of the semi-official press of the continent to discredit Lord Cranborne's statement seems likely to defeat itself. The Americans, says The Times, with their usual good sense, are not disposed to bear a permanent grudge against the governments and the peoples who mis-judged the situation and espoused the losing cause in the Spanish-American war. They are quite ready to be friends, but they know the facts and do not care to be taken for fools.

Spanish War Veterans See Roosevelt.

Washington, Jan. 24.—A delegation of Spanish war veterans called at the White House and urged on the president the wisdom and justice of giving Spanish war veterans preference over civilians in appointments to positions in the government civil service. The president said he recognized there was merit in the request and said he would take up the matter with the cabinet and do what he could to carry their views into practical operation.

Chilpancingo Has Another Shock.

Mexico City, Jan. 14.—Another slight earthquake shock shook Chilpancingo during the afternoon and people ran about the streets in despair. No harm was done. Official data shows that 613 houses, not including the govern-

Would Rather Help the Needy.

Berlin, Jan. 24.—Emperor William has expressed a wish that the inhabitants of Berlin should not illuminate the city on his birthday, Jan. 27, but be expended to helping the unemployed and the needy.

TO SUCCEED SEWELL.

New Jersey Republicans Select John F. Dryden of Newark.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 24.—The Republican caucus to select a candidate for United States senator to be supported during the present session of the legislature to succeed the late General Sewell selected on the 19th ballot John F. Dryden of Newark, president of the Prudential Insurance company. Mr. Dryden on the 19th ballot received exactly the necessary 52 votes. His principal rivals in the contest were State Senator Stokes of Cumberland county and Former United States Attorney General John W.
Griggs. Congressman Gardner, ex-Sheriff David Baird of Camden and Barker Gunnere of Mercer were also in the field, and while they received a fair amount of support in the ear-balloting it was at no time doubted that the contest was between Messrs.

Dryden, Stokes and Griggs.

The vote was at once made unanimous. The Republicans have a majority on joint ballot of 45, which assures the election of Mr. Dryden, as the caucus action is binding.

GUARDS ITS QUOTATIONS.

Milwaukee Chamber Will Protect Its Operations.

Milwaukee, Jan. 24.—The Milwaukee chamber of commerce is determined that the quotations on privileges daily made in the pit shall not be used by proprietors of bucketshops in Chicago or any other city. With this end in view the managers of the various telegraph companies have been requested to furnish the names of all commercial bodies, exchanges, corporations, firms or individuals to whom they are sending, continuously or otherwise, quotations based upon transactions in grain privileges or futures made within the Milwaukee chamber of commerce. The managers are also notified that such quotations must not be sent to anyone without first having secured the approval of the committee on quotations.

The object is to find whether or not the Milwaukee quotations are going into the hands of parties opposed to legitimate trading.

CLASS TARIFF RATES REDUCED

Agent W. D. McKay Receives
Copies of the New Tariff
Yesterday.

DISTANCE TARIFF IS SHAVED.

A Howl Goes Up From Jobbers in Smaller Cities Over the New
Compilation.

Agent W. D. McKay has received copies of the new class tariff, which has been remodeled and recompiled in accordance with an order of the railroad and warehouse commission of the state.

This tariff reduces the freight rates between terminals, such as St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to points in Minnesota and North Dakota on the lines of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern.

Comparison of the tariff with the one which was in effect shows that the rates from these terminals to Brainerd have been reduced as follows:

First class, per one hundred pounds, 49 to 45 cents; second class, 42 to 38 cents; third class, 32 to 30 cents; fourth class, 25 to 23 cents; fifth class, 20 to 18 cents; class A, car lots, 20 to 18 cents; class B, 17 to 16 cents; class C, 15 to 14 cents; class D, 12 to 10 cents; class E, 10 to 9 cents.

The tariff is effective on the Minnesota & International the same as on the Northern Pacific, although the copies of the tariff for this line have not been received.

There is a general cut of about 10 per cent on distance tariff to towns within a radius of fifty miles of Brainerd, which means quite an item to the jobbers, if the schedule is understood correctly.

It seems that a general howl has gone up from some of the cities interested about the size of Brainerd. The following is an example of how the Crookston people look upon the matter:

"The result is that on several classes a reduction of rates is brought about which amounts to five cents per hundred on carload rates from the Twin Cities and Duluth to this city."

"A very important matter in this connection, and one that makes a vast difference with the jobbing business of the northwest, is the fact that the smaller cities are left high and dry in the matter of local rates on shipments to customers they serve."

"The cities thus affected are Crookston, Grand Forks, Fargo, Wahpeton, St. Cloud, Fergus Falls, Moorhead and Brainerd. Unless a new tariff is filed for the benefit of the jobbers in these cities, it will work hardships that will bring forth a great outcry."

"The Journal interviewed members of Crookston's wholesale and shipping firms today and learned that on the percentage basis the jobbing houses in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth can lay down goods in the valley, with the exception of three points, Fisher, Mallory and Euclid, at less money than the Crookston jobbers can get them to Crookston in car lots, and send them out by local freight. On shipments to Warren and Thief River Falls the outside jobbers have the best of it by two cents per hundred, while on shipments to St. Vincent the Crookston jobbers are handicapped six cents."

"Fargo is really worse off than this city, as there is not a point to which her jobbers send freight but has a lower rate from the larger cities."

"The matter will in all probability be taken up by the jobbers association of the valley, and it is altogether likely that a meeting will be called in the near future at which a concession will be asked. As it now stands the retailers have no incentive to patronize the jobbing institutions in the smaller cities, except as it effects a saving in time."

Progressiveness and low prices are synonymous. You find them both at Cale & Bane's.

THE TIMBER BILL.

A conference on the Morris bill to amend the Nelson timber law was held in Mr. Tawney's committee room at Washington yesterday. It was behind closed doors. In addition to the members of the delegation, Colonel John S. Cooper and Ferdinand Peck of Chicago; Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry division of the department of agriculture; Mr. Ayres of the geological survey, and Messrs. Bernard and Warren of Cass Lake, were present to give their views.

Judge Morris made the opening statement. He explained the provisions of the Nelson law and the difficulty that has been experienced in enforcing it, and the necessity for changes that will provide for the disposition of Indian timber in such manner that the Indian's best interests shall be preserved.

He explained provisions of the bill he introduced at the beginning of the session. He stated that it had the approval of the interior department and Indian office. He also explained various propositions that have been presented for the creation of a national park and for the application of scientific forestry towards its preservation.

He declared himself as willing to accommodate himself to any reasonable changes that might be suggested, and hoped that the conference would result in an agreement on a measure that the entire delegation would support and push through at this session.

Eddy followed Morris. He explained his position on the amendment of the Nelson law and provisions of the bill introduced by himself last session, and this. He said he thought the law should be amended so that timber could be sold on bank scale and lands then opened to settlement under homestead laws. There should be no dead and down operations, but all timber should be clear from lands so that it could be cultivated by homesteaders. He favored an amendment to the Morris bill giving the purchaser the option of manufacturing timber on the reservation or some other place, instead of giving the secretary of the interior the option of requiring the erection of mills on the reservation.

McCleary said: "It seems to me that Judge Morris and Mr. Tawney are both right. Each of them emphasizes a different phase of the question. When Judge Morris says that trees which are mature should be cut, he is emphatically right. When Mr. Tawney says it is desirable to preserve the beauty spots at the sources of the Mississippi, he is right. If we will put these two elements together we will have a correct solution of the matter as I see it."

JUST SETTLED HIS OWN CASE

Motion in Important Matter
Argued Before Judge McClenahan Today.

Quite an important motion was argued before Judge McClenahan in chambers this morning in the case entitled Charles H. Anderson vs. The Itasca Lumber Co. This case was twice tried and twice the jury disagreed, the matter having been tried before Judge McClenahan at Grand Rapids the last time.

The action was brought by Anderson to recover damages for the burning of some cedar posts, which are claimed to have been set fire from an engine belonging to the defendant company which was being operated on a small road owned by them.

It seems after the case was tried the last time and the jury disagreed that Anderson took it upon himself and settled the case with the company. Anderson has no money and his attorneys, White & Price, of Duluth, having taken the case on a contingent fee, claim that he had no right to settle the matter and the motion before the court today was to have the case put on the calendar again.

After the arguments were made the court took the matter under advisement.

Literary Notes.

The Cosmopolitan is fortunate in its fiction for February. Stories of love, adventure and humor from the pens of famous authors make the "Midwinter Fiction Number" vitally interesting. "S. Cohn & Son" by Zangwell deals with the Angelization of a Jew and the inevitable tragedy of his love for an English girl whose race prejudice triumphs over her nobler feelings. In "The Valley of the Dead" Thomas A. Janvier pictures the struggle of a dashing young engineer between love and duty. "Mr. MacGlowrie's Widow" is the title of a western story in Bret Harte's happiest vein and "The Fish" is one of E. W. Kimble's best humorous skits.

In the February Ladies' Home Journal are given the first chapters of a new romance of the south, entitled "Those days in Old Virginia." The author of this story is Miss Laura Spencer Porter, whose love stories have already attracted wide attention, and who, in this instance, presents one of the most charming pictures of the love, beauty and chivalry of the days before the war that has yet been painted in words. Not only is it painted in words, for Mr. W. L. Taylor, who has spent much time in Virginia collecting material and making sketches for the illustrations, has finished a series of pictures to accompany the story which may well be said to be the best of his recent work.

After Mr. Walker Whiteside's engagement in this city when he appeared in the "Heart and Sword" he went to Fargo and reports from there indicate that he received an ovation which has seldom ever been accorded any actor in that city, and so much pleased were the people that they too, demanded a return engagement. He will also put on with his excellent company, Shakespeare's beautiful comedy "Merchant of Venice." This will be the title of the piece to be presented by Mr. Whiteside in this city on Wednesday evening next, January 29.

He will be seen in his masterly portrayal of Shylock. Miss Wolstan will play her ever charming Portia. William B. Mack will be seen as Gratiano and Laurence Evart as Bassanio.

Mr. Whiteside is an actor possessed of exceptional talents. He has fire, virility, earnestness, and a voice which as has been said, should unlock the door of fortune to him.

After carefully considering the advice to essay other roles, Mr. Whiteside laid aside "Richard III," "Richard" and "Othello," and commenced producing "Shylock."

It was a fortunate move, for he has met with flattering, artistic and financial success in all he has attempted in recent years.

"THE CHRISTIAN."

"The Christian," Hall Caine's great story dramatized, will, without doubt be one of the most elaborate productions to be given in Brainerd this season. The company which will present this piece to theatregoers is the best that is traveling on the road today, and the production is looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Feb. 5 is the date of this great production in this city.

"THE OLIVE CLUB."

Regarding the Minnesota University Mandolin and Glee Club the Mankato Review has the following to say:

The Minnesota University Mandolin and Glee club arrived in Mankato this morning from Albert Lea, where they appeared before a large audience last night. The clubs were entertained at a dinner last evening at the Albert Lea House by the University Alumni Association and then followed a reception. Thus far the club has visited Northfield, Faribault, Owatonna, Austin and Mason City. In all these cities they have been warmly received and created a most favorable impression.

The date for this attraction is Feb. 6.

A REPUTATION.

How it was Made and Retained in Brainerd.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it was only by hard consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public endorsement of scores of Brainerd residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. R. D. Ransom of Third Ave., East Brainerd, fireman at the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailment. My back hurt me awfully; I could stoop but when I attempted to rise, severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed. The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me."

Sold for 50 cents a box, at the McFadden Drug Co., H. P. Dunn & Co., and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

CLASS TARIFF
RATES REDUCED
Yesterday.

Compilation.

Agent W. D. McKay has received copies of the new class tariff, which has been remodeled and recompiled in accordance with an order of the railroad and warehouse commission of the state.

This tariff reduces the freight rates between terminals, such as St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to points in Minnesota and North Dakota on the lines of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern.

First class, per one hundred pounds, 49 to 45 cents; second class, 42 to 38 cents; third class, 32 to 30 cents; fourth class, 25 to 23 cents; fifth class, 20 to 18 cents; class A, car lots, 20 to 18 cents; class B, 17 to 16 cents; class C, 15 to 14 cents; class D, 12 to 10 cents; class E, 10 to 9 cents.

The tariff is effective on the Minnesota & International the same as on the Northern Pacific, although the copies of the tariff for this line have not been received.

There is a general cut of about 10 per cent on distance tariff to towns within a radius of fifty miles of Brainerd, which means quite an item to the jobbers, if the schedule is understood correctly.

It seems that a general howl has gone up from some of the cities interested about the size of Brainerd. The following is an example of how the Crookston people look upon the matter:

"The result is that on several classes a reduction of rates is brought about which amounts to five cents per hundred on carload rates from the Twin Cities and Duluth to this city.

"A very important matter in this connection, and one that makes a vast difference with the jobbing business of the northwest, is the fact that the smaller cities are left high and dry in the matter of local rates on shipments to customers they serve.

"The cities thus affected are Crookston, Grand Forks, Fargo, Wahpeton, St. Cloud, Fergus Falls, Moorhead and Brainerd. Unless a new tariff is filed for the benefit of the jobbers in these cities, it will work hardships that will bring forth a great outcry.

"The Journal interviewed members of Crookston's wholesale and shipping firms today and learned that on the percentage basis the jobbing houses in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth can lay down goods in the valley, with the exception of three points, Fisher, Mallory and Euclid, at less money than the Crookston jobbers can get them to Crookston in car lots, and send them out by local freight.

On shipments to Warren and Thief River Falls the outside jobbers have the best of it by two cents per hundred, while on shipments to St. Vincent the Crookston jobbers are handicapped six cents.

"Fargo is really worse off than this city, as there is not a point to which her jobbers send freight but has a lower rate from the larger cities.

"The matter will in all probability be taken up by the jobbers association of the valley, and it is altogether likely that a meeting will be called in the near future at which a concession will be asked. As it now stands the retailers have no incentive to patronize the jobbing institutions in the smaller cities, except as it effects a saving in time."

A conference on the Morris bill to amend the Nelson timber law was held in Mr. Tawney's committee room at Washington yesterday. It was behind closed doors. In addition to the members of the delegation, Colonel John S. Cooper and Ferdinand Peck of Chicago, Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry division of the department of agriculture, Mr. Ayres of the geological survey, and Messrs. Bernard and Warren of Cass Lake, were present to give their views.

Judge Morris made the opening statement. He explained the provisions of the Nelson law and the difficulty that has been experienced in enforcing it, and the necessity for changes that will provide for the disposition of Indian timber in such manner that the Indian's best interests shall be preserved.

He explained provisions of the bill he introduced at the beginning of the session. He stated that it had the approval of the interior department and Indian office. He also explained various propositions that have been presented for the creation of a national park and for the application of scientific forestry towards its preservation.

He declared himself as willing to accommodate himself to any reasonable changes that might be suggested, and hoped that the conference would result in an agreement on a measure that the entire delegation would support and push through at this session.

Eddy followed Morris. He explained his position on the amendment of the Nelson law and provisions of the bill introduced by himself last session, and this. He said he thought the law should be amended so that timber could be sold on bank scale and lands then opened to settlement under homestead laws.

There should be no dead-end operations, but all timber should be clear from lands so that it could be cultivated by homesteaders. He favored an amendment to the Morris bill giving the purchaser the option of manufacturing timber on the reservation or some other place, instead of giving the secretary of the interior the option of requiring the erection of mills on the reservation.

McClary said: "It seems to me that Judge Morris and Mr. Tawney are both right. Each of them emphasizes a different phase of the question. When Judge Morris says that trees which are mature should be cut, he is emphatically right. When Mr. Tawney says it is desirable to preserve the beauty spots at the sources of the Mississippi, he is right. If we will put these two elements together we will have a correct solution of the matter as I see it."

JUST SETTLED
HIS OWN CASE

Argued Before Judge McClenahan Today.

Quite an important motion was argued before Judge McClenahan in chambers this morning in the case entitled Charles H. Anderson vs. The Itasca Lumber Co. This case was twice tried and twice the jury disagreed, the matter having been tried before Judge McClenahan at Grand Rapids the last time.

The action was brought by Anderson to recover damages for the burning of some cedar posts, which are claimed to have been set fire from an engine belonging to the defendant company which was being operated on a small road owned by them.

It seems after the case was tried the last time and the jury disagreed that Anderson took it upon himself and settled the case with the company. Anderson has no money and his attorneys, White & Price, of Duluth, having taken the case on a contingent fee, claim that he had no right to settle the matter and the motion before the court today was to have the case put on the calendar again.

After the arguments were made the court took the matter under advisement.

The Cosmopolitan is fortunate in its fiction for February. Stories of love, adventure and humor from the pens of famous authors make the "Midwinter Fiction Number" vitally interesting. "S. Cohn & Son" by Zangwell deals with the Angelization of a Jew and the inevitable tragedy of his love for an English girl whose race prejudice triumphs over her nobler feelings. In "The Valley of the Dead" Thomas A. Janvier pictures the struggle of a dashing young engineer between love and duty. "Mr. MacGlowrie's Widow" is the title of a western story in Bret Harte's happiest vein and "The Fish" is one of E. W. Kimble's best humorous skits.

In the February Ladies' Home Journal are given the first chapters of a new romance of the south, entitled "Those days in Old Virginia." The author of this story is Miss Laura Spencer Porter, whose love stories have already attracted wide attention, and who, in this instance, presents one of the most charming pictures of the love, beauty and chivalry of the days before the war that has yet been painted in words. Not only is it painted in words, for Mr. W. L. Taylor, who has spent much time in Virginia collecting material and making sketches for the illustrations, has finished a series of pictures to accompany the story which may well be said to be the best of his recent work.

VICTORY FOR BUTTER

FRIENDS OF THE ANTI-OLEO
MARGARINE BILL CARRY
THEIR POINT.

A RESTRICTIVE MEASURE

Places a Tax of Ten Cents a Pound on All Imitation Butter, Whether Yellow or White—The Genuine Article If Colored Artificially Is Subject to All the Taxes and Penalties of the Manufactured Product.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The friends of the measure for rigid restrictions on oleomargarine and kindred products have carried their point before the house committee on agriculture and by a vote of 12 to 5 ordered the report of a bill which is even more restrictive than the original Groat bill, reintroduced by Representative Mc-Cleary of Minnesota. The subject has been under consideration for the past 10 days, all of the various interests having been granted hearings.

Before the day's meeting the friends of rigid restriction held a conference and decided on several amendments.
The original bill placed a tax of 10 cents per pound on oleomargarine and butterine colored to imitate yellow butter. The word "yellow" was struck out, thus making the restriction apply to imitations of white or any other kind of butter. Another change makes those who take uncolored butter and color it subject to all the taxes and penalties of manufacturers. When the committee met these amendments were agreed to by the foregoing vote. The opposition to the bill proposed numerous amendments, all of which were rejected. One of these permitted the use of pure milk, cream or butter as an ingredient of oleomargarine; another applied the oleomargarine restrictions to "renovated butter." Representative Henry of Connecticut was authorized to report the measure as amended.

SWORD FOR SCHLEY.

Senator Mason of Illinois Introduces a Resolution.

Washington, Jan. 24.—An effort was made in the senate by Mr. Mason (Ill.) to obtain consideration for a joint resolution which he introduced extending the thanks of congress to Winfield Scott Schley "for his brave and able conduct while in command of the American fleet at the victorious battle of Santiago." The effort, however, was not successful.

Mr. Mason's resolution, in addition to the thanks of congress, provided that Admiral Schley should be presented a sword, that bronze medals commemorative of the battle of Santiago should be distributed among the officers and men "under the command of Schley during said battle," and that $10,000 be appropriated to meet the expenses of the resolution. On motion of Mr. Hale the resolution was referred to the committee on naval affairs.

The resolution introduced by Mr.
Teller providing for intervention on the part of this government in behalf of General Scheepers, sentenced to death by the British South African authorities, was postponed indefinitely, as Scheepers already has been executed. Mr. Teller made a brief but caustic speech on the actions of Great Britain during the Boer war and declared that if the facts of this case were as he understood them, "Great Britain, in putting Scheepers to death, is guilty of a vile assassination."

The department of commerce bill was under consideration the greater part of the session, but no definite progress was made.

TO PUNISH ANARCHY.

Judiciary Committee Will Soon Report a Bill to the House.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The details of a bill restricting anarchy and anarchists has been practically determined upon by the special committee of members of the house judiciary committee appointed to consider this subject. The language of some of the provisions is yet to be settled, but all of the essential features of the forthcoming measure are determined upon.
The measure will provide the death penalty for an attempt to kill or assault the president or anyone in line of succession for the presidency. An accessory before the fact is to be treated as a principal and an accessory after the fact is punished in a less degree than a principal. Any person who counsels, advises or advocates the assaulting or killing of any officer of the United States shall be fined or imprisoned. No alien who advocates an overthrow of organized government, or who is affiliated with an organization holding such views, is to be admitted to this country. Provision also is made for the punishment of those conspiring in this country against a foreign ruler. The special committee probably will report to the judiciary committee within the next few days and a report to the house is expected soon thereafter.

Robert McFetridge Dies.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Robert McFetridge, the wealthy brother dealer who was shot by his brother William as the result of a business feud, died during the evening. William McFetridge denies all knowledge of the shooting, although there were a number of people who saw him shoot his brother down.

The Hohenzollern at Gibraltar.

Gibraltar, Jan. 24.—The imperial German yacht Hohenzollern has arrived here. Admiral Count von Bau-disin, her commander, landed. He was saluted by a land battery, visited the governor and later re-embarked and the Hohenzollern proceeded on her journey to New York.

IS HELD FOR MURDER.

Sensational Testimony at the Preliminary Hearing of Tom Horn.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 24.—Tom Horn, the scout, Indian fighter and stock detective, who was arrested 10 days ago charged with the murder of Willie Nickell, son of an Iron Mountain ranchman, who was assassinated last July near his father's place, was given a preliminary hearing and held for trial without bond on the charge of murder in the first degree. The testimony of the prosecution was of the most sensational nature. Deputy United States Marshal Lafora, Deputy Sheriff Snow and Stenographer Ohnhaus testified that they heard Horn confess that he killed the boy, as well as Ranchman William Powell and Charles Lewis, who were assassinated near Iron Mountain eight years ago.
Lafora engaged Horn in conversation at the former's office a week ago Sunday. Ohnhaus and Snow were in an adjoining room. Horn told Lafora, the witnesses said, how the crimes were committed, the amount of money he received for the jobs, etc.

CABLES AUTHORITY TO SIGN.

Treaty for Sale of Danish West Indies to Be Concluded.

Copenhagen, Jan. 24.—Authority to sign the Danish West Indies treaty was cabled to the Danish minister at Washington during the afternoon. It is expected that the treaty will be signed immediately. It is understood here that it will be at once transmitted to the senate. Its prompt ratification is expected.

Objects to Use of Name.

Canton, O., Jan. 24.—Mrs. McKinley has objected to the use of "Hotel Mc-Kinley" as the name for a new hotel in this city. It was announced by a company of Cantonians that a $150, 000 structure would be so named. It is given out that Austin Lynch, counsel for Mrs. McKinley, has been instructed to try to induce the hotel people to change the name, and if inducements will not avail to prevent the use of "Hotel McKinley" by legal action.

Two Highwaymen Taken.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 24.—Two of the highwaymen who participated in the fight at Anadarko when Sheriff Smith and Beck were killed last week, are believed to have been captured on the Ka Indian reservation, 15 miles northwest of Newkirk, O. T. The capture was made by Sheriff Bain of Kay county and a posse. One gave the name of Cooper and the other of Charles Moffett. They are now in jail at Newkirk.

Ordered to the Philippines.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—The Twenty-ninth regiment, stationed at Fort Sheridan, has received orders from Washington to get ready to start for Manila. The Twenty-ninth is one of the new infantry regiments provided under the recently enacted army reorganization bill and has been in process of formation since last March.
Colonel William Auman, the commanding officer, is now in the Philippines.

GROWING YLANG-YLANG

Facts About a Profitable Industry in the Philippines.

TREE OF GREAT ECONOMIC VALUE

The Essence of It Sells For From $40 to $35 a Pound, and the Supply Does Not Equal the Demand—Also Possesses Some Curative Virtues in Tooth and Other Aches.

From official material in the division of insular affairs, war department, the following information has been compiled in response to inquiries from many sources, particularly with reference to the costly attar of ylang-ylang, says the Washington Star:

Among the numerous trees of economic value in the Philippines are many varieties from which essences or essential oils may be extracted. Those only used in the present state of the industry are the ylang-ylang, sampaguita and champaca.

The ylang-ylang (Jasminum ilang-ilang) is a cultivated and wild tree often attaining a height of sixty feet, botanically known as Cananga odorata (Hook) or Unona odoratissima (Bl.), belonging to the custard apple family, producing leaves 2½ by 6 inches and drooping greenish yellow flowers three inches long and of extraordinary fragrance, from which the celebrated attar of ylang-ylang, cananga oil or oleum an-om is distilled. The mountain trees produce the best results. The essence is exported to France, England, Singapore and China, the United States demand being small.

The sampaguita (Jasminum sambal, L.) is a plant belonging to the family oleaceae, producing white flowers from which a highly prized perfume essence is extracted by distillation. The champaca (Michelia champaca, L.) is a garden plant belonging to the family mag-noliaceae, attaining a conical shaped height of thirteen feet. The flowers, about an inch in length, are very fragrant and produce by distillation a well known essence.

The popularity of violet as the latest favorite in the list of perfumes is threatened by the attar of ylang-ylang of the Philippines. Colonia agrippina, the choice perfume of the Romans, so named in honor of the wife of the Emperor Claudius, after enjoying in modern times an unrivaled lead for nearly two centuries as the eau de cologne, from the city of the Rhine, the first place of its modern manufacture on an extensive scale, yielded to the more lasting fragrance of the sachet in evidence in all forms, in all places and among all classes and conditions of women.

The attar of roses, the famed essential oil of the damask rose of Kazan-lik, on the sunny slopes of the Balkans, finds in the Philippine product its equal in perfume, a better yielder of essence from the flower and therefore a less costly basic essence for the perfumer's art.

The ylang-ylang, or sometimes spelled ilang-ilang, while indigenous to many parts of tropical Asia, reaches its greatest perfection in the Philippine Islands, where it is a favorite among the natives. Besides its value as an attar in preparations for the hair and toilet waters, it is also claimed to possess curative virtues in tooth and other aches and pains. The perfumers of Europe and to a less degree of the United States make it the base of some of their most costly extracts. The Manila oil is practically without competition in the markets of the western nations on account of superiority and at from $40 to $35 a pound is unequal to the demand.

The tree, common to many localities south of Manila, is found chiefly in the well populated provinces and islands, it being said to thrive best near the habitations of man. The propagation in plantations by seed or cuttings about twenty feet apart each way, 108 trees to the acre, is easy, and the growth is rapid in almost any soil. The first flowers appear in the third year, the eighth yielding often as high as a hundred pounds, the bloom occurring in every month. The greatest yield is from July to December.

The process of converting the long, greenish yellow fragrant petals of the flower into essence is by the simplest form of distillation, no chemicals of any kind being required, simply water and the choicest flowers. The oil will vaporize in a closed boiler at 220 degrees F. The usual results follow.

The best quality must be clear as distilled water and fragrant. The second quality is yellowish and smoky. The oil is drawn from the bottom of a glass separator, the water remaining.
The oil is filtered through talcum and ready for the market, being packed in glass bottles, commands ready purchases.

About seventy-five pounds of flowers yield one pound of oil. Flowers are worth from 8 to 15 cents in gold per pound, and the cost of manufacture is placed at $4 a pound. The yield in the case of attar of roses is small, 150 pounds of rose leaves producing but one ounce of oil.

There are flowering groves in many parts of southern Luzon and the Visay-an Islands which may be leased. The vicinity of Manila is particularly well adapted to the growth of this valuable tree.

Violets For the Queen.

The Canadian Woman's Historical society and the Daughters of the Empire are asking all women to wear violets on Feb. 22, the anniversary of the death of Queen Victoria. This is said to be the desire of the king, and the suggestion has been received with general approval.

PERILS OF ALASKAN TRAVEL

Letter Carrier's Heroism Described in an Interesting Letter.

A letter telling of the perils and hardships of travel in Alaska has been received by Mr. Henry Reebtin, disbursing clerk of the department of justice, from A. R. Heilig, who is the clerk of the United States district court for the district of Alaska, says the Washington Post. Mr. Heilig is stationed at Eagle, Alaska. The communication was dated at that place Nov. 30, 1901. The letter inclosed the voucher for Mr. Heilig's salary for the month of November.

"I received the check for my salary for August on Nov. 15," Mr. Heilig said. "This is the last received, by reason of the slowness of the mails on account of the difficulty in travel this time of the year. The mail carrier going down stream was fastened in the ice and obliged to float with it ten miles beyond his destination before he could be extricated from his dangerous position by men on shore. The carrier coming up stream broke through the ice and sank twice, but managed to roll over on a cake of ice on coming up the second time and scrambled to shore. The mails, being on a dog sled, were not injured, as when he felt the ice breaking under him he yelled at them to 'mush on,' and they went ahead.

"He found a cabin, without matches or fire, whose owner was out examining his traps. For a time he tried to avoid freezing his legs by pounding them with a club until they were raw, but finding this unavailing and being in imminent danger of losing his feet or legs he ran back to the river, broke a hole in the ice and stood in the water until the owner of the cabin returned.

"When he arrived at Eagle, all his toes were black as coal and both feet were covered by what appeared to be one large blister. After a day's treatment he started on foot for Dawson, a hundred miles away, against the protests of every one here, who urged him to wait longer on account of the danger of blood poisoning. But the indomitable will and energy of many of these carriers and their strong determination to get the mails through on time would not let him be persuaded, and in two days we heard by wire of his safe arrival at Forty Mile, about fifty miles toward Dawson. He should be at the latter place now, though we have not yet heard from him.

"The season has been unusually mild, the thermometer having not yet gone lower than 40 degrees below zero.
In the absence of wind, of which there has been very little this year, 30 degrees below is the favorite temperature for travel, and for walking about the town no one thinks of wearing an overcoat. But when the breezes blow and the mercury goes below one wants to keep under shelter."

MISSIONARIES FEAR REVOLT

Letter From Fusan, Korea, Tells of Antiforeign Feeling.

A letter received at Lapeer, Mich., from Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sidebotham, Presbyterian missionaries at Fusan, Korea, tells of a probable outbreak in that country, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. They say:

"The foreigners at Talku are in a state of alarm. The governor here hates the foreigners because of the way they have obtained land and because the land they have has been consecrated, according to heathen rites, to the spirits and should not, according to heathen belief, be desecrated by the 'foreign devils,' as we are called. The Talku officials have had a grievance against the missionaries for a long time, and finally the governor has agreed upon a plot to murder the foreigners and is waiting for a favorable time to dispatch men to do the horrible work. Sixty miles north of Talku a body of Boxers has formed, and they loudly proclaim their intention of annihilating the white skinned people. The Talku people are hemmed in and have no possible way of escape. Americans in Japan think that a general uprising in Korea must come and that it will be the signal for combat between Russia and Japan."

A Chinese Exposition.

Preparations are making for an exhibition of American goods and manufactures in the Crystal Palace, London, next summer. Good luck to the project! This again brings to mind the fact that American business men ought to be up and doing about a great, permanent, effective exposition in China, with branches in several of the larger cities and with additional ramifications, such as "traveling shows," which could be moved from place to place through that most densely populated section of the globe, says Harper's Weekly. We have comparatively little to do with military and political troubles there.
We are China's friend, and we hope China recognizes the sincerity of our friendship. Other nations may balk and squabble and hold multitudinous councils, but the plan for Americans is to make an organized demonstration of that which we have to offer in the products of our fields and mines and mills.
Ours is a path not of war and intrigue, but of open, honest commercial dealing, and it would be worse than folly to let this opportunity escape through sheer negligence.

A Carnegie College Yell.

Mr. Carnegie's new educational institution will not be complete without a college yell, and it ought to be something that will be characteristic and says the Washington Times. Something like the following might do:

Bare and brave,
Hoist man! Hoist man!
